
... is focal: confined to pericentromeric / segmental-duplication bins (orange), where depth is inflated and allele fraction depressed (collapsed paralogues). Everywhere else every bin is balanced: no detectable whole-chromosome or arm-level imbalance.